

Music Monday to Feature Variety of Musicians

Music Monday, which is a live music concert at Crockett Springs on the evening of the first Monday each month from 5:30-9 p.m. Rogersville Heritage Association will kick off the season May 3, featuring String Break, Neon Remedy, and Traci Cochran. Melissa Nelson, director of the Heritage Association, encourages everyone to bring lawn chairs, blankets, and a picnic. Enjoy hometown musicians! This event is free to the public

“It’s a family-oriented event, I would love to see families there picnicking on their blankets or in their lounge chairs enjoying the music. Music is very therapeutic, and with the times we’re in right now, it’s very much needed.” Nelson added, “You can social distance. We ask that the audience stay 15 feet from the gazebo (stage), but yet there is plenty of room at the park to get spread out and social distance. Music makes everybody happy. It’s going to be a mix. String Break will open the concert with a variety of bluegrass to rock, and current music.”

Neon Remedy, hailing from the hills of Rogersville, Tennessee is an Old School country band with a New School twist. Performing classic songs from the artists of the 1950’s up to the 2000’s in a stylized tradition all its own from Elvis Presley to Eric Church to Johnny Cash and Jason Aldean, grounding out every show with a few surprises thrown in.

Hailing from the hollers of New Market Tn, Traci Cochran delivers up a sound of Old School Country & Homegrown Soul, that fuses Blues, Swing, Folk & Roots-Rock Elements. Traci started singing in Churches, Fairs and Festivals at a very young age. She joined her first band in Spring of 2001. Nightbird, who won the Alternative Country TCMA & NACMAI Vocal Group of the Year in 2002, the same year Nightbird- 'Mary Lee Traci's CD was released. She later went on to join bands like, Lynn Rose & The Cinnamon Girls, Hard South Band, Mighty Blue, Whoa Nellie, and was the founding member of both The Holler Honeys & current band The Rare breeds. Traci has opened performances for amazing talented songwriters and musicians like Michael Reno Harrell, Karen E. Reynolds, Wallace Coleman, Lazor Lloyd & The Young Fables at The Castle Barn @ Pressman’s Home, Rogersville. Most opportunities arose from a friend and local songwriter Glenn Spayth, owner of the famous Bunkhouse in Bulls Gap, Tn. Traci has two all original albums available on most online outlets. Cosby Skies 2010, and Mood Swing 2018. She is currently working on a third all original album hopefully due out by the end of 2021. That’s Monday May 3rd from 5:30 to 9pm. Bring chairs, a blanket and a picnic!
